

101191	Islamic Culture	(3 credit hours)	(prerequisite -)
---------------	------------------------	-------------------------	-------------------------

This course is concerned with topics regarding the Islamic faith, pillars of the Islamic religion, and the different branches of Islamic culture, including: Quranic exegesis, Hadith, Fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence), theology, conduct, and acts of worship. Focus is drawn to these matters on a cognitive and behavioral level suitable to students of common knowledge. The course incorporates some Quranic verses and prophetic hadiths with contents appropriate to the discussed subjects.