

101212	The Abbasside Literature (Poetry)	(3 credit hours)	( prerequisite “101114”)
---------------	--	-------------------------	---------------------------------

This course aims to study aspects of the political, social and cultural life of this age, the mixing of the Arabs with the Persians and Turks and the impact of all this on the literary movement. The student will be introduced to Abbasside poetry, created by prominent poetry figures, in order to take in the trends of Abbasside poetry, and the prospects of its creation of new trends, free opinions, innovative meanings, accurate descriptions, and enduring ingenuities across various multiple readings.