

101213	Abbasside literature (Prose)	(3 credit hours)	(prerequisite "101212")
---------------	-------------------------------------	-------------------------	---------------------------------

This course aims at acquainting the student with the literary movement in the fields of translation and literary and scientific authorship. It also deals with the development of Abbasside prose; its characteristics and arts of rhetoric, debate, letters, narrations and maqama. The course additionally studies some prominent prose creations of the writers of the Abbasside era.