

Communication skills- English (110110) (3credit hours)

The course aims at developing the skills the prerequisite course focused on . It also pays a special attention to different linguistic styles opt for various social situations.