

Military Sciences (110100)(3credit hours)

The course aims at presenting the role played by Jordanian armed forces in defending the country and serving the community. It gives a bright picture of the reality of the armed forces, its duties and aims. The course helps implant in the students the national spirit, sense of belonging and military culture, regarding the role of the forces in protecting and defending the country.