

National Education(110820)(3credit hours)

This course focuses on country citizenship, rights and duties, pivotal in the Jordanian society, which are based on concepts realities, and the social. Political and economic facts. This course also highlights to role played by Jordan in building Arab unity from a national perspective. It also highlights, the role played by Jordan policy, locally and internationally and the interaction with Arab issues, specially the Palestinian one. The course in addition, tackles the pillars of comprehensive development in all fields of life in the society.