

Faculty of Business

Accounting Department Activities.

Activity title	Place	Date	Details
Accounting Department students win 9 CMA scholarships	Rotana Amman Hotel	11/2019	Accounting Department students win 9 certified management accountant (CMA) scholarships from institute of management accountants (IMA). Head of the accounting department, Dr. Mohammed Makhoulf indicated that the scholarship including free membership in the (IMA), exemption of: registration dues of (CMA) program, the online examination materials and the exam fees. In addition, it aims at serving and supporting Jordanian students to obtain international professional recognition.
KPMG Competition for Excellence in Accounting.	Yarmouk University	10/2019	In cooperation with Yarmouk University, KPMG Jordan organized the fourth KPMG Jordan Accounting Excellence Competition and witnessed the participation of 22 teams from Jordanian universities. Isra University team qualified for second stage (semi-final).
Seminar "Planning for your future career"	Faculty of Business	12/2018	This seminar aimed to enable students to plan for their future career after graduation and to raise their awareness of professional accounting certificates.
Visit the Central Bank of Jordan	Central Bank of Jordan	11/2018	Dr. Yazan Oroud has taken students of the Accounting Department for a programmed visit to the Central Bank of Jordan. The visit aimed to introduce students enrolled in the internal audit course about internal audit process. Our students were welcomed by Mrs. Maha Saber; Head of Internal Audit. Thereafter, Abeer Abu Alia, Head of Quality Assurance Division at the Internal Audit department gave a brief presentation about the audit-based risk and the control self-assessment. Moreover, she explained how they create the risk matrix.
Accounting Department students win 7 CMA scholarships	Regency Hotel	8/2018	Accounting Department students win 9 certified management accountant (CMA) scholarships from institute of management accountants (IMA).
Charity Bazaar	Faculty of Business	5/2017	The students of Accounting Department held a charity bazaar and its profits went to the East Amman Charitable society. This activity highlighted the spirit of cooperation between the students and the society.