

14.2 Supporting aquatic ecosystems through education

The absence of substantial bodies of water diminishes the opportunities to develop educational programs to address pressing environmental issues.